

RIAD ANATA

My little Fez...
Travel with a conscience

Travel booklet

FEZ//MOROCCO

Brought to Fez by the fortunes of life, I immediately fell under the charm of the city. The city completely bowled me over. Initially, I wanted to create a simple home, intimate and friendly where I could come to relax and recharge with family and friends.

However, with my passionate nature and as someone who likes to introduce others to my discoveries, I decided to open a charming guest-house and to share my passion for travel and culture.

Riad Anata is a real project from the heart and a beautiful human adventure that started in 2008...

Riad Anata...

In this gem of a city I was supported by all kinds of men and women, by all cultures who helped and accompanied me in constructing this ancient masonry, the Riad in which I welcome you today.

Valérie Janczewski,
Your personal waitress

Valérie

Welcome to riad anata!

WE ARE ALREADY SHARING
ONE OF OUR SECRETS WITH YOU :
LAMB TAJINE WITH ALMONDS
AND PRUNES (FOR 2 PEOPLE)

INGREDIENTS

- * 150gr of prunes
- * 2 lamb shank
- * 40g whole blanched
- * 500gr of onions
- * 50gr of rancid butter
- * 1 pinch of cinnamon powder
- * 1 pinch of ginger powder
- * 1 desaffran pinch
- * a few of sesame seeds
- * salt Peppers
- * sugar or honey
- * Olive oil

Put the meat in a large pot, add the sliced onions as well as the spices, the oil, the butter, and let it cook gently for 1h30 min...

At term, remove the meat, leaving the onions in the pot until all the juices have evaporated, then add the honey in order to caramelize the onions.

In a small pot mix the spices, the prunes, a drizzle of olive oil and a bit of water and cook until tender.

Once cooked, add a bit more honey and caramelize them, pit the prunes and instead place a whole almond, which has been previously fried in a bit of oil.

Coat the stuffed prunes with the roasted sesame seeds.

Enjoy!

Did you know that Riads were ancient masonries, poorly sound-proofed and possessing a fountain to absorb all the secrets from your conversations? This is the reason why you have quiet bowls in your rooms! ☺

At Riad Anata, everything is possible or almost everything! Just share with us your desires and we shall make the maximum to answer your expectations...

smart tips...

HOW TO GET TO THE NEW TOWN

RED TAXIS

At Batha square, close to the Riad Anata, you will find small red taxis waiting to take you anywhere in the city for only a few dirhams. The price is displayed on the meter. Everywhere else, just wait on the side of the road in the direction you're going and hail a taxi when you see one.

☺ Taxis are collective and will take up to 3 people. Each 'group' should pay the amount shown on the meter. A great way of making new contacts!

☺ In Fez, we do not give the street name to the taxi driver, but the 'locality' near to where you actually want to go. Eg: 'Hotel Jnan Palace' to get to the 'la Maison Blanche' restaurant.

Why? Just because the taxi drivers do not know all the hotspots in the city!

ATTENTION: Your passport must be valid 3 months after your return date!

We organize airport or train station pick-up.

riad anata / PASSWORD: RIADANATA1

TIPS

For your stay, buy a phone card from one of these three operators: Morocco Telecom, Meditel or Inwi to make it easier to contact us and communicate among you. Foresee 20dhs for a new number. You can find them in all the small grocery shops...

You leave the Riad by car? Call the emergency number 160 in case something goes wrong!

SHOPPING IN MEDINA

☺ You wish to discover the Medina? We recommend you to take one of the official guides we work with. 400dhs/ day + 150 dhs/visit Medina surroundings by car, head up for one of the best panoramas of the city, Borj Sud & Borj Nord, Merenid tombs, King's palace ramparts. Ideal departure: 10 am.

☺ What is the exchange rate for the dirham?

€1 equals approximately 11 dhs. Just divide the price you see by 10 to get the approximate price in euros! You can withdraw money or change euros at the bank Bab Boujloud (closed Saturday afternoon and Sunday), at any exchange shop along the perpendicular street (open on Sundays) or at the Riad.

Would you like to bring small gifts home from your travels? Think of soap, spices, argan oil, handmade carpets, pottery made with tadelakt in all kinds of colours, hand-carved bottle openers, but especially the speciality from Fez, cobalt blue pottery.

Some useful words in Derrija (Moroccan dialect)

SALAM ALIKUM: Hello (literally: May the peace be with you)

ALIKUMSALAM: Hello (says in response to 'salam Alikum')

SCHAAL: How many

TAMELMZ-EN: Good price

RALIBZEF: It's too expensive

NKASCHWIYA: Lower your price

MZ-EN!: Good!

SAFÉ: That's enough

CHOUKRAN: Thanks

CHOUKRANBZEF: Thanks a lot

PSLEMA: Goodbye

INCH' ALLAH: If God wills

BELDI: Moroccan

Moulay Idriss, Volubilis et Meknes

1000 dhs

MOULAY IDRIS, a holy city 22km from Meknes and 55km Meknes Fez, where the founder of the first Muslim dynasty of North Africa is buried, the Idrissid. Famous for its popular 'moussem' (religious celebration) celebrated every year in late August - early September. It is perched on several hills where the view is exceptional: you can see Volubilis and the surrounding countryside by climbing the narrow streets. Visit the Souk on Saturday and the Festival Beni Amar 14km in June (crafts, music and cinema).

You can also go to Meknes by train for 60dhs/pers and take a shared taxi to Volubilis for around 200dhs.

VOLUBILIS at the foot of Moulay Idriss, is the most important Roman site in Morocco, and the best preserved. It covers 40 hectares and is listed by UNESCO. A superb visit during sunset or sunrise.

I suggest you take an official guide once there (100dhs)

MEKNES, the city of Moulay Ismael boasting gigantic doors, a World Heritage Site by UNESCO. You can visit the mausoleum of Moulay Ismael, the pottery museum in Rif, Dar Jamaï museum, the royal stud...

Once there use the services of a guide for 200dhs in Meknes.

Taza and Tazzeke NATIONAL PARK

For a nature based or sporty day out...

TAZEKKA NATIONAL PARK is located in the northernmost part of the Middle Atlas Mountains, 160 km from Fez. We advise you to leave at 8am to enjoy this day.

The park is part of a remarkable tour with a total length of 76 km, which starts from the town of Taza.

Possibility of trekking: A tour of 20 min for a distance of 1.4 km for the less athletic, 1h30 for a distance of 4.6 km or 4h30 for a distance of 17.3km for the brave.

Climb down half way the Friouato Grottos, a real gulf that opens out onto an open air crater that is 20m in diameter. From this platform, the view is really striking.

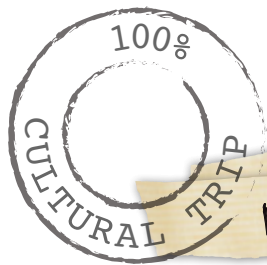

Once there, count on 300dhs for a mountain guide. Avoid going there on Friday because the guides are not there...

stop at the Gite at point Ain Bechar if you want to have lunch, but do let them know in advance to ensure they get the necessary supplies!! ☺

1400 dhs

Rabat - salé

RABAT is the administrative capital at the main residence of the king, you can admire the beautiful coastal town. With the imminent reopening of the garden of botanical trials, Rabat will be declared the first green city in Morocco.

Make sure to visit: The Hassan Tower - Shrine of Mohamed V - The Hassan II Avenue in the Kasbah - Museum Oudaïas - Oudaïas - Bab er-Ruach - Palace - Royal Park Chellah - Magic Park - The brand new zoo garden.

Moyen Atlas and berbers villages

AZROU is a city located in the very heart of the Atlas, at an altitude of 1200m. Its forest of oaks and cedars are a great reason to make a stop here... Again surprisingly, the little 'Nest Egg' monkeys appear out of everywhere and you can buy them peanuts for a few dirhams... Very nice for the small and the big kids.

IFRANE, an excellent tourist town, under the allure of a Swiss village that no one would think to find in the Berber regions. Stop for tea at the beautiful 5 star Hotel Michlifien, lush and totally unexpected! + Toboggan and quad rental possible at Hotel Michlifien.

NB: The Middle Atlas was the first to see the evolution of skiers in Morocco, and it is the city of Azrou who had the privilege to attract top athletes there nearly 75 years ago.

AÏT ALI, on the road to Ain Leuh, stop for lunch at Nerrachte Cottage owned by our dear friend Aziz. He will share with you with ease the simplicity of their daily life and can also take you on excursions in the green hills in the spring....

"Alibaba's cave in the mountains, ideal to find a great carpet Bouchrouite or Handira, mottled throughout Morocco by our friend Aziz". Audrey, interior designer of Riad Anata (page 29).

AÏN LEUH, a large Berber village., is not included in this tour of the Middle Atlas, but we can arrange it for you, if your heart tells you...

The cherry harvest at the end of May, National Ahidouss Arts Festival of the Berbers from the Atlas the first weekend of July where all the Berber tribes are involved, you will discover a unique fantasia and many dance performances and songs.

Souk Tasting Trails...

Enjoy it
big day or big night ☺

We'll visit three different food souks allowing the chance to try traditional Moroccan street food including dried meats, milawi, harsha, briwats, spicy sardines, spicy potato cakes, soups, olives and more. At the honey souk where you'll be able to taste an array of delicious wild honeys, so important in Moroccan cooking. We'll investigate traditional cooking methods.

Discover the world of spices, their uses and their secrets, try cooking 'on-street', followed by a tasting tour or learn to bake a bread in a 400 year old community oven with the baker overseeing your hands-on efforts. You can also live this discovery in the early evening. Our «Tasting trail by night» reveals the captivating appeal of the medina as the sun goes down and the locals enjoy the specialties that only the evening offers.

Possible any day of the week except on Friday / Duration: 3.5 hours

CHEFCHAOUEN, otherwise known as the "blue city" is a charming small town of around 400,000 inhabitants located on the slopes of Mount Tisouka Megou and the Rif Cordillera, which rise above the city like two horns, giving its name to the city "Chefchaouen" in Berber means "look at the horns."

At about 660m above sea level and with very little car traffic, breathe in the clear and fresh air.

chefchaouen

THE MEDINA OF CHEFCHAOUEN - is fairly quiet and small. When you enter through one of its five doors and get carried away by your senses, you will find yourself inundated with many smells...

The wide variety of colours of the shops and bazaars contrast with the dazzling blue-white houses.

Bask on the terrace of a restaurant or cafe, while observing the comings and goings of passers-by and the beauty of the Grand Mosque and the Kasbah across the way.

A few steps away you can find Makhzan Place, the Parador Hotel and the public car park, where you can take a lane which leads northeast to Bab el-Ansar and the Ras el-Maa, one of the most beautiful places in Chefchaouen.

☺ We also organise tours in the Merzouga desert passing through Ouarzazate and Marrakech... Ask us more info!

BAB BOUJLOUD

At Bab Boujloud (the Blue Door), you will notice that the Medina divides in two parts:

To the right, the Talaa Skria (the small Talaa) is abound with small shops that are not always very genuine (imitation brands). However, if you persevere and get to the end, you will discover the Quaraouiyine Mosque and the brotherhoods of artisans: the Najjarine (carpenters), the Seffarine (coppersmiths), and the Chouara tanneries. You will also find Resto 7 and Barcelona. To be tried!

On the left, the Talaa Kgbira (the big Talaa) is abound with the most authentic stalls, food stalls, rose petals, spices, fruits and vegetables and crafts from Fassi.
It is in this part of the Medina that you will find the Clock Café. Ideal for a mint tea break!
